

for more than just law.

Graham Spencer.

Graham graduated in 2016 from the University of Western Australia with a Bachelor of Laws and a Bachelor of Economics majoring in International Business Economics.

Graham obtained a Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice from the Australian National University and was admitted to practice in August 2017.

Whilst at the University of Western Australia, Graham was selected to participate in the Los Angeles Placement Program, a 9-week program which involved studying at UCLA (University of California, Los Angeles) and working at the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. Graham also competed in a number of competitions whilst studying at UWA, including trial advocacy, negotiation and the PwC Amazing Case.

Graham is a member of the Law Society of Western Australia.

Graham initially joined Lawfield in September 2014 as an Administrative Assistant, which he continued whilst completing his studies. Since transitioning into a Graduate role in January 2017, and then Solicitor in August 2017, Graham has been involved in a wide range of commercial and property matters including:

- Commercial Leases
- Retail Shop Leases
- Share Sale and Business Sale Agreements

- Shareholder Agreements
- Wills, Enduring Powers of Attorney and Enduring Powers of Guardianship
- Contract Reviews
- Loan Agreements and Mortgages
- Residential and Commercial Property Settlements
- Transmission and Survivorship Applications
- Caveats and Withdrawal of Caveats
- Solicitor Guarantee Certificates
- Reseals of Grants of Probate
- PPS registrations

Outside of work, Graham enjoys playing in a social beach volleyball team, staying up to date with the latest technology, aerial photography with a drone, and catching up on the latest TV shows.
