than just law.

Sophie Pember.

Sophie graduated in 2015 from the University of Western Australia with a Bachelor of Laws and a Bachelor of Commerce majoring in Corporate Finance.

During her time studying Sophie worked at Lawfield as an Administrative Assistant and then as a Law Clerk, and undertook clerkships at a number of firms in Perth in a range of practice groups.

After obtaining a Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice from the College of Law, Sophie was admitted to practice in November 2016. Sophie is a member of the Law Society of Western Australia.

After graduating, Sophie worked at a boutique corporate firm where she gained experience in relation to general commercial law, capital raisings, the Corporations Act and ASX compliance.

Since joining Lawfield in November 2017 as a Solicitor, Sophie has been involved in a range of commercial matters including the following:

- Shareholder Agreements
- Share Sale Agreements
- Contract Reviews
- Loan Agreements and Mortgages

- Wills, Enduring Powers of Attorney and Enduring Powers of Guardianship
- Solicitor Guarantee Certificates
- Employment Contracts
- Advising on the Australian Consumer Law

Outside of work, Sophie enjoys trying out new restaurants and bars with friends, spending time in WA's southwest region and keeping fit and active
